What does a 25,000 euro holiday villa look like?

Villa la Tosca is the answer! Would you like to stay there?

Justin has returned from his tour of the stunning Bay of Arcachon and hasn't stopped talking about his visit to Villa la Tosca.

"Put simply, Villa la Tosca is the best holiday rental I have ever seen" says Joint Managing Director of Alternative Aquitaine, Justin Ashby..."and in 9 years I've seen a lot of outstanding villas".

The good news is that Alternative Aquitaine has been appointed as Tosca's UK booking agent for 2012.

Ok, so not many can afford to stay somewhere that costs up to 25,000 EUR/wk, especially in a double-dip recession! But most are curious to know what it's like. Highlights include Tosca's elegant yet informal atmosphere, full-time butler, concierge staff to organise unforgettable experiences, direct beach access and privileged access to the region's finest restaurants and vineyards.

Outside the peak season Tosca accommodates short-breaks, corporate events, weddings and parties. We can't think of a better place to celebrate a special occasion.
